

Seigneur du carri

AOC Ventoux (Vallée du Rhône), Seigneur du carri, Red 2017

THE WINE

This special cuvée is named after the traditional Carri festival, which takes place every 25 years in the village of Mazan.

"Carri" may be translated as "cart" or "wagon"; the festival involves a procession of over 100 horses, drawing floats which carry around 200 passengers dressed in costumes from the time of Louis XV. The most recent edition of the festival, recreating a lordly court in Provence, took place in July 2010.

Completely de-stemmed grape harvest. After fermentation, the wine was aged in vats for 12 months.
