

Canteperdrix blanc

AOP Ventoux (Vallée du Rhône), White 2018

THE WINE

Canteperdrix is a district of the town of Mazan particularly gamey where partridges were accustomed to regroup.

After the harvest, the birds pecked the grains left on the stem where a fermentation could begin. This rather special consumption resulted in partridges singing more than usual.

In 2009, we decided to associate this name to different selections: Tradition, Prestige, Viognier, Merlot, creating the "Canteperdrix" range.

The grapes are pressed immediately after harvest. The fermentation proceeds at low temperatures (14 ° / 15 °) for about 20 days.
