Deep garnet color. An expressive nose offering fruity (fresh cherry) and spicy (pepper) aromas. A soft and fresh attack with a nice volume. The mouthfeel is lively and smooth, with a well-structured body featuring notes of red fruits (ripe cherry), spices (pepper), flint and a touch of minerality. Present but coated tannins. Well balanced.

This wine pairs excellently with a variety of dishes, including delicatessen items and grilled meats. Its balance of acidity and tannins complements hearty fare such as beef, lamb, poultry or game meats like venison. For instance, it would be a delightful match with dishes like roast beef or lamb collar with mustard. Pleasure wine for both formal and casual occasions.
